

DAVID N. GLASER, M.D.
Clinical and Forensic Psychiatry
Curriculum Vitae

Private Practice

Clinical:

*1982
to present*

- * Psychiatric treatment of outpatient and inpatient referrals.
- * Medication consultation for patients treated by non-physician mental health practitioners.
- * Diagnostic evaluations of inpatients and outpatients.
- * Consultation-liaison with medical inpatients.
- * Evaluation and treatment of alcohol and drug abuse.
- * Supervision of psychologists' treatment of psychotherapy patients.

Forensic:

- * Independent Medical Examinations as requested by plaintiff and defense attorneys, judges and insurance carriers.
- * Preparation of comprehensive reports on findings from psychiatric evaluations and record reviews.
- * Litigation consultation and strategy development for litigated cases.
- * Expert witness and consultant on a myriad of cases involving age discrimination, sexual harassment, racial harassment and discrimination; wrongful termination, catastrophic psychiatric trauma, psychotherapy boundary violation, and medical and psychiatric malpractice.
- * Expert and consultant on medical, substance abuse and psychiatric

- * Courtroom experience varies from capital cases in the Criminal Courts to Civil Litigation cases in Superior Court. Experienced at arbitrations and depositions as an Expert Witness.
- * As an Industrial Consultant, retained by companies as an advisor and risk profile assessor; consult and direct programs to reduce risk for workplace violence and litigation; perform fitness-for-duty evaluations; Qualified Medical Evaluations and Agreed Medical Evaluations for the Workers' Compensation system.

Provided specialized psychiatric services to the insurance industry, legal community, private corporations and individual patients.

Consultant

Barrington Psychiatric Center

*1989
to 1992*

- * Supervised staff of 35 psychologists who performed evaluations of injured workers. Responsibilities included: direct patient contact with approximately 100 Workers' Compensation cases per month; clinical consultation with evaluating psychologists on issues of diagnosis, causation and associated disability; staff development; policy formation; and, liaison with attorneys and insurance adjusters.
- * As the principal psychiatric clinician, provided psychiatric evaluation and intervention on all appropriate psychotherapy cases, while also providing some direct treatment.
- * Provided medical, psychiatric and psychopharmacologic consultations on all medical-legal cases, including civil litigation, criminal Workers' Compensation and psychiatric malpractice. Provided attorneys with comprehensive evaluations, reports and/or records reviews.
- * Testified at depositions, arbitrations, mediations and jury trials.
- * Member of the Barrington Trauma Study Group and Trauma Response Team, specializing in intensive psychotherapy and psychiatric treatment for victims of psychiatric trauma such as robberies, assaults, murders and natural or man-made disasters.
- * Program Director of Civil Litigation Program. Supervised administration of all forensic psychiatric referrals from insurance companies and plaintiff/defense attorneys. Provided attorneys with early intervention feedback concerning clinical liabilities and strength of cases ranging from wrongful termination, racial and sexual discrimination and harassment, and allegations of emotional distress secondary to business events, to psychotherapy boundary violation cases and psychiatric malpractice.

- * Provided in-house continuing education on a myriad of mental health issues, including substance use and abuse, diagnosis, psychopharmacology, and psychiatric complications of medical illness and/or treatment. Member of M.C.L.E. Speakers Bureau providing psychiatric medical-legal education to attorneys and peer professionals.
- * Provided consultation to staff. Had contact with over 150 patients per month on consideration of D.C.S. Child Abuse/Neglect reports, Tarassoff warnings to potential homicide victims, and L.P.S. involuntary commitment. Provided inpatient psychiatric treatment when indicated.

EDUCATION

Undergraduate: Case Western Reserve University, B.S., 1974.

Honors: Junior year abroad - University of Lancaster, England.

Medical School: University of Massachusetts Medical School, M.D., 1978.

School:

LICENSURE

- * National Board of Medical Examiners, 1979.
- * Physicians and Surgeons License, 1979.
- * California Medical License, # G40041.
- * DEA License, # AG3243146.

CERTIFICATIONS

- * Diplomate, American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology.
- * Diplomate, American Board of Forensic Psychiatry.
- * Qualified Medical Examiner (QME), California Department of Industrial Relations, Industrial Medical Council.

CLINICAL TRAINING

Internship: St. Mary's Medical Center, Los Angeles, California, Internal Medicine, 1978-1979.

Residency: University of Southern California/L.A. County Medical Center, General Psychiatry, 1979-1982.

Fellowship: Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, Los Angeles, California, 1982-1984.

ADDITIONAL POST-DOCTORAL TRAINING

* Institute of Psychiatry and Law, U.S.C. Medical Center (elective) 1980-1981.

PRIOR PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Private Clinical Psychiatry

Practice Provide psychopharmacologic consultation and hospital consultation-liaison work, principally with Cedars-Sinai, Cooley's Anemia Unit.

*1982
to 1989* Attended to inpatient psychiatric hospitalization of children, adolescents and adults. Provided outpatient psychotherapeutic treatment and psychopharmacologic treatment of children and adults.

Medical Santa Clarita Valley Special Children Services

Director Consulted with treating and evaluating psychologists on issues of treatment, referral, the utilization of psychotropic medication, and special school placement. Developed and directed the psychiatric program at the Center, which was the catchment area for all of the Santa Clarita Valley. Served as Liaison/School Consultant for the Santa Clarita Valley Public School System.

*1987
to 1989*

Medical Family Services of Los Angeles

Director Supervised 25 psychologists treating over 150 patients per month.

*1983
to 1987* Provided back-up consultation for psychotropic medication, inpatient treatment, and treatment-resistant clinical cases. Developed ongoing education programs so that psychologists could obtain continuing education credits. Advised the Regional Director on fiscal allocations of United Way funds. Provided some time-limited direct psychotherapeutic treatment and marital therapy.

Assistant Cedars-Sinai Medical Center Substance Abuse Unit

*to the Medical
Director* Assisted the Medical Director in the administrative responsibilities, including case conferences and public lectures. Provided 24-hour coverage to this medical unit treating severe substance abusers. Directly evaluated adults and adolescents with a myriad of substance abuse problems ranging from intravenous heroin use and freebase cocaine use to alcoholism and sedative hypnotic abuse. Provided rehabilitation treatment for all patients on the unit and provided acute medical detoxification in the intensive care unit for newly admitted drug-abusing patients. Served as consultant/liaison to paramedical staff and evaluated and appropriately referred patients with florid psychiatric symptoms to the Cedars-Sinai Psychiatric Unit.

1984
to 1985

Psychiatric Criminal Panel

Los Angeles County Jail

Evaluate incarcerated inmates at the L.A. County Jail, Twin Towers, Hall of Justice, and Wayside for assessment of sanity at the time of commission of the alleged offense. Evaluate/recommend on the competency to stand trial and proper psychiatric disposition of inmate. Consult with private criminal attorneys, public defenders and district attorneys on relevant medical-legal issues.

1988
to present

CONSULTING POSITIONS

1982
to 1984

Clearview School

Consultant at this institution specializing in the treatment of acting-out adolescents and children with learning disabilities. Provided direct supervision to treating psychologists and evaluated adolescents for the use of Ritalin and antidepressant medications. Provided a liaison for the adolescent students requiring inpatient psychiatric treatment and assessed students for referral to medical specialists. Advised the school dean on issues pertaining to discipline and possible school expulsion.

1983
to 1984

Beverly Hills School System

Served as Consulting Psychiatrist with school psychologists, and referred students for psychiatric assessment. Advised teachers, administrators and school psychologists as to the most efficacious mental health disposition for all referred patients. Participated in weekly I.E.P. consultations

1984
to 1988

Park Century School

Provided consultation/liaison to the school population, teachers and staff.

1980
to 1982

Superior Court 95A

Served as Expert Witness for L.P.S. Involuntary Commitment. Performed comprehensive psychiatric evaluations on involuntarily committed patients at L.A. County/U.S.C. Medical Center and testified over 150 times in Superior Court as an Advocate for Unit 3 at County Hospital. Participated in the pilot project in 1981 for the establishment of probable cause hearings relating to involuntary commitment hearings for 5250 holds.

1980
to 1988 Superior Court 95, Conservatorship Division
Served as patient advocate for conservatorship. Advised the courts as an Expert Witness pertaining to patients who would be best served by a psychiatric conservatorship.

CURRENT POSITIONS

1994 to present Ad Hoc Member, Claims Review Committee of malpractice carrier, CAP/MPT

1994 to present Consultant, CAP/MPT

1995 to present Expert Reviewer, Medical Board of California
After evaluating cases for the Medical Board since 1988, completed the formal program offered by the Medical Board for Reviewers in 1995

1997 to present Provider, Medical Board of California, Physician's Diversion Program

1998 to present Volunteer, Family Violence Project of Los Angeles

1999 to present Member, Advisory Board - American College of Forensic Psychiatry

2000 to present Board of Directors, Hollywood-Sunset Free Clinic

2004 to present Faculty UCLA Forensic Psychiatry Program

PRESENTATIONS/PUBLICATIONS

Interactions between Chondroitin-6-Sulfate and Poly-L-Arginine, an Aqueous Solution by Circular Dichroism Spectroscopy, with J. Blackwell, Bipolymers, June 1973.

Re-examination of Old MDSO Laws in the Current Context, presented to Psychiatry and Law Fellows, USC Medical Center, Department of Psychiatry and Law, 1981.

Evaluating OBS: How Does One Objectively Evaluate Memory Complaints?, presentation to Loyola Marymount University Department of Psychology, April 1982.

Case Presentation of a Psychotic 13 Year Old Boy, Psychiatric Grand Rounds, Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, May 1983.

Case Presentation: Intensive Psychotherapeutic Treatment of a Traumatized 4 Year Old Boy, Department of Psychiatry, USC Medical Center, 1983.

Assessing Appropriate Charges for Inpatient and Outpatient Psychiatric Services, presented to Adjusters at California Life Insurance Company, 1983.

When to Refer Students for Psychiatric Evaluation, presented to Clearview School, 1983.

Presentation of Treatment Case, Grand Rounds, Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, 1984.

Combating Fraud with Psychiatric Billing Based on RVS Codes, presented to American Western Life Insurance Company, 1984.

Impact of DSM-III on Clinical Psychiatry, presented to Family Services of Los Angeles Regional Meeting, 1984.

Indications for Treatment of Attention Deficit Disorder with Hyperactivity with Ritalin, presented to Clearview School, 1984.

Medication Compliance with Supportive Psychotherapy, presentation at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center to Cooley's Anemia Pediatric Unit, 1984.

A Family Systems Approach with Severe Axis I Psychopathology, with M. Goodman, Ph.D., presented to California State University, Northridge, Department of Psychology, November 1984.

Adolescent Drug Use: Evaluation and Treatment, Teaching Seminar to Graduate Physicians, Cedars-Sinai Medical Center Advanced Clinical Seminars, 1984-1988.

Indications for Inpatient Psychiatric Treatment, presented to Nu-Med Regional Medical Center, 1985.

Appropriate Indications for Antidepressant Treatment, presented to Lakeview Terrace Medical Center, 1985.

Facilitating the Processing of Mortality with Chronically Ill Adolescents, presentation at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center to Cooley's Anemia Pediatric Unit, 1985.

Co-morbidity of Affective Disorder and Substance Abuse, presented to the Care Unit (inpatient drug unit) at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, 1985.

Substance Abuse, a ten week course on the history, mechanism of action, effects, medical and psychiatric complications of all major substances of abuse, Beverly Hills High School, 1985 and 1986.

Understanding Substance Use, a three week course to latency-age children informing them of the effects of the major drug categories, Park Century School, 1986-1987.

Understanding Cocaine Abuse, presented to the Medical Staff at Van Nuys Community Hospital, August 1988.

Counter Transference: How to Use It Effectively in Treatment, presented to Van Nuys Hospital Staff, 1989.

Multi-modal Approach to the Treatment of a 19 Year Old Female with Mania Secondary to Severe Head Trauma, presented with R. Tamachevski, Ph.D., Grand Rounds, Van Nuys Hospital, May 1989.

Trauma Treatment for Earthquake Victims, CSPA sponsored weekend workshop for over 250 Bay Area mental health professionals immediately following the 1989 earthquake, San Francisco, California, 1989.

Utilization of an Amytal Interview to Uncover Pre-pubital Sexual Abuse in an Adolescent Female Diagnosed with Borderline Personality Disorder, forensic psychiatry presentation with S. Wilson, M.D., Grand Rounds, Van Nuys Hospital, February 1990.

Psychopharmacology for Non-Psychiatrists, presented to Van Nuys Hospital Staff, 1990.

Competent Utilization of a Forensic Psychiatric Expert, case presentation to the law firm of Stockdale, Pecham and Werner, 1991.

Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, presented to Stockdale, Pecham and Werner, 1991.

The Significance of the Medical Record Review, presented to the Law Offices of Michael Henderson, 1991.

Pragmatic DSM-III for Attorneys, presentation to the Law Offices of Goldstein, Gurvitz and Silver, 1991.

Evaluation of the Mental "Stress Claim" in Workers' Compensation, presented at the Annual Meeting to The American Academy of Disability Evaluating Physicians, San Diego, California, February 1992.

Medical Report Writing for Workers' Compensation, presented with Judge Kahn, Judge Shapiro and Dr. Stephanie Peters, by Source Seminars for M.C.L.E. credits, March 1992.

Assessing Drug Use, presented for M.C.L.E. credits to the law firm of Liebman, Reiner and MacNeil, August 1992.

Effective Utilization of a Psychiatric Expert, presentation for M.C.L.E. credits to The Law Offices of Ballard, Rosenberg and Golper, March 1993.

Understanding Stress Claims, presented with John Garamendi to The Westside Workers' Compensation Forum, Beverly Hills, California, June 1993.

Risk-Awareness Training in Sexual Harassment, co-narration of training video for industry, Parallax Education, August 1993.

Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and Malingering, presented to the law firm of Hagenbaugh & Murphy, August 1993.

Evaluation of Stress Claims, presented to the Annual Meeting of The American Academy of Disability Evaluating Physicians, Washington, D.C., April 1994.

Boundary Violations: Risk Factors for Sexual Misconduct, presented to the Annual Meeting of The American College of Forensic Psychiatry, Montreal, Canada, May 1994.

Proximate Cause, Actual Events and Violent Acts: Assessing Workers' Compensation Cases Under Reform and Recent Changes in the Law, presented to the Southern California Applicant Attorney's Association, May 1994.

Sexual Contact Between Patient and Therapist: A Forensic and Clinical Perspective, presented at the Third International Conference of Sexual Exploitation of Women, Toronto, Canada, October 1994.

Malingering and Competent Comprehensive Assessment of Stress Claims, presentations to the Forensic Conference sponsored by John Mullin and Company, Honolulu, Hawaii, November 1994.

Sexual Exploitation in Doctor-Patient Relationships, presentation and interview, The Leeza Gibbons Show, February 1995.

Deposition of a Psychiatric Witness, presented to the Annual Meeting of The American College of Forensic Psychiatry, San Francisco, California, April 1995.

Forensic Psychiatric Consultation, presented to Southwestern School of Law, June 1995.

Women As Victims, presented at the Projustice Summit 1996, Costa Mesa, California, March 1996.

Third Party Liability, presented with attorney J. Seligman at the Annual Meeting of The American College of Forensic Psychiatry, New Orleans, Louisiana, March 1996.

Ethical Considerations Relevant to the Psychiatrist as an Expert Witness in Workplace Litigation, presented to the Annual Meeting of The American College of Forensic Psychiatry, New Orleans, Louisiana, March 1996.

Boundary Violations in Clinical Practice, presentation at the Annual Meeting of The American College of Forensic Psychology, New Orleans, Louisiana, March 1996.

Dealing With High Risk Children in Foster Placement, presented to the Foster Care Education Program at Los Angeles Mission College, September 1996.

Violence on the Freeways, presentation and interview, American Journal television show, October 1996.

Mental Injuries in Employment Litigation, presentation to the Division of Employment Law, State of California Attorney General's Office, November 1996.

Risk Management: Common Practice Situations and Ways to Minimize Risk of Being Successfully Sued, presented to the Annual Meeting of The American College of Forensic Psychiatry, Vancouver, April 1997.

Case Presentation: Mrs. C. v. Law Firm of A,B,C & D, presented to the Annual Meeting of The American College of Forensic Psychiatry, Vancouver, April 1997.

Blame: From Simplicity to Sophistication, presented to the Annual Meeting of The American College of Forensic Psychiatry, San Francisco, April 1998.

Disability Evaluations: Perils from Plaintiff and Defense Perspectives, presented to the Annual Meeting of American College of Forensic Psychiatry, Santa Fe, New Mexico, April 1999

Ethical Issues in Forensic Work, presented to the Annual Meeting of American College of Forensic Psychiatry, Newport Beach, California, April 2000

Substance Abuse and Psychiatric Illness, presented to the Annual Meeting of Labor Division of California Bar Association's Annual Meeting, Alysol Ranch, California,

April 2001

Case Presentation of a Medical Board Physician Misconduct Case from Record Review to Administrative Trial, presented to the Annual Meeting of American College of Forensic Psychiatry, Toronto, Canada, April 2001

Use of Countertransference in the Process of Forensic Evaluations, presented to the Annual Meeting of American College of Forensic Psychiatry, San Francisco, California, April 2002

High Price of Fame: Stalked, interview with respect to forensic work on celebrity stalking cases, E Channel, October 2002

Post Termination and Psyche Claims, with Aaron S. Turchin, Esq., presented to the Advanced Workers' Compensation in California Seminar, Los Angeles, November 2002

Preventing Adverse Events from Materializing; A Role for Forensic Psychiatrists, presented to the Annual Meeting of American College of Forensic Psychiatry, Palm Springs, California, April 2003

Civil Litigation and Forensic Psychiatry: Updates and Trends, with Steven Gambardella, J.D., presented to the Annual Meeting of American College of Forensic Psychiatry, San Francisco, California, March 2004

Trick, Deceptive and Difficult Questions Posed at Deposition and Trial, presented to the Annual Meeting of American College of Forensic Psychiatry, Newport Beach, California, April 2005

Consulting with Colleagues, with Eric W. Fine, M. D., presented to the Annual Meeting of American College of Forensic Psychiatry, San Francisco, California, March 2006

Forensic Skills Workshop: The Role of the Psychiatrist in Civil Litigation, with Albert M. Drukteinis, M.D., J. D., Roger Sharp, J.D., and Eric Fine, M.D., presented to the Annual Meeting of American College of Forensic Psychiatry, San Francisco, California, March 2006

Adrenal Burnout: A Relatively Common Overlooked Diagnosis: Medical/Legal Issues, presented to the Annual Meeting of American College of Forensic Psychiatry, San Francisco, California, March 2006

Anatomy of an Employment Litigation Injury Case, with Craig Horowitz, Esq. (Plaintiff), and Linda Savitt, Esq. (Defense), with David Glaser, M.D. as moderator, presented to the Annual Meeting of American College of Forensic Psychiatry, Santa Fe, New Mexico,

April 2007

Deposing the Applicant and Defense Expert Psychiatrist, presented to the San Fernando Bar Association, Workers Compensation Subsection, Los Angeles, California, October 2007

Case Study: Psychiatric Sequelae Following Stroke in a Litigated Medical Malpractice Case, with Steven Gambardella, Esq., presented to the Annual Meeting of American College of Forensic Psychiatry, San Francisco, California, April 2008

Effective Use of Experts in Employment Litigation, presented to the Los Angeles County Bar Association, Labor & Employment Law Section, Los Angeles, California, April 2008

#####